The Graduate School of Natural Science and Technology accept online applications for the entrance examination. Before applying, applicants are required to create an account on the "My Page registration" of the Online Application Website. We kindly ask that you start this process early to ensure successful completion of your application.

Please note that important information regarding the entrance examination will be sent to the email address provided during registration. Therefore, it is crucial that this email address remains accessible and active, with no possibility of alteration or deletion.

Furthermore, input on the online application must be done by the applicant themselves.

About Advanced Global Program (AGP)

in the Graduate School of Natural Science and Technology, Gifu University

Admission Policy

The Graduate School of Natural Science and Technology seeks to admit students who have strong interests in life science, environmental science and manufacturing and have qualities of being able to work successfully as highly specialized professionals in industry and public administration associated with those disciplines both in Japan and abroad. In science and technology and other areas that pursue solutions to problems, one must acquire flexibility to broaden the expertise in a particular field, creativity to generate new concepts and ideas and, on top of that, internationality that enables one to work successfully in connection with the world. To address these needs, we look forward to welcoming students who have the motivations described in (1) to (3) below and learn actively:

Ideal type of students

- (1) Motivated to acquire a broad range of knowledge in order to respond flexibly to trends in society as well as master deeper knowledge with a focus on cutting-edge technology.
- (2) Motivated to produce new concepts, frameworks and innovations in the face of various issues mainly in their area of specialty; and
- (3) Motivated to tackle local issues with a global perspective, in keeping with an increasingly internationalized world.

Department-specific criteria

Department of Life Science and Chemistry

This department is designed with the intention to contribute to improving quality of life through the comprehension of life science and chemistry. Accordingly, admission will be offered to prospective students who are interested in life science and chemistry and have qualities of being able to work successfully in the future as highly specialized professionals in industries such as pharmaceuticals, chemical production, cosmetics, food and the environment.

Department of Agricultural and Environmental Science

This department is designed with the intention to contribute to sustainable biological production and to preserving and repairing the ecological system encompassing human society. Accordingly, admission will be offered to prospective students who have strong interests, coupled with a high level of ethics as scientists, in biological production science and environmental science and have qualities of being able to work successfully as highly specialized professionals in biology-related industry, public administration, research institutes and other sectors associated with these disciplines both in Japan and abroad.

Contents of Education

Department of Life Science and Chemistry

[Molecular Life Science Division]

This division provides the fundamental and applied researches related to life science such as organic chemistry, natural products chemistry, biochemistry and microbiology. In order to contribute to the welfare and existence of human beings, we conduct advanced research for analyzing and utilizing molecular biotechnology and nurture high-level researchers and professional engineers who are able to play significant roles in the fields of bioscience and biotechnology.

[Life Science for Food Division]

Through the science of food function to comprehensively understand nutrition and the functions of food, and science of food control to systematically learn quality control and the logistics/processing of food, we conduct education and research to let students acquire advanced knowledge and techniques which can be applied generally to food industries.

Department of Agricultural and Environmental Science*[Plant Production Division]

Our educational goal is to foster advanced professionals who can make a contribution in the field of plant production. In order to achieve this goal, we impart not only basic and specialized knowledge related to plant ecophysiology, plant protection, plant breeding and genetics, but also new skills for sustainable eco-friendly plant production through research-based education.

[Animal Science Division]

Animal Science is a field that draws from many disciplines, including animal development, genetics, physiology, nutrition, reproduction, and behavior. Animal Science curricula are designed to provide graduate students with high-level knowledge and skills for animal production, management, and conservation. Through the division, students of Animal Science are expected to develop their ability to work across disciplines.

[Environmental Science and Ecology Division]

The division provides programs and research to facilitate students in acquiring practical skills for assessing the environment in terms of ecosystems and techniques to maintain and manage farm irrigation facilities and farmland. This is achieved through lectures to understand the mutual influence between individual organisms and species, as well as methods to physically improve the soil and water environment, based on ecological science as the common ground for each plant and animal hierarchy and each ecosystem.

From Monday May 19, 2025 to Friday May 30, 2025

(5) Where to Submit the Application Documents

Submit the application documents to the Student Affairs Section of the Graduate School of Natural Science and Technology, Gifu University.

When sending them by post, use “simple registered mail (kan’i kakitome)” for applicants who live in Japan, and EMS for international students.

(6) Choice of Academic Supervisor

When choosing a preferred academic supervisor, refer to the “List of Faculty Members (Applied Biological Sciences)” (URL: <http://gnst.gifu-u.ac.jp/international/abc/>).

Note that applicants need to contact the preferred academic supervisor in advance to confirm the contents of education, etc.

3. Admission Screening

(1) Contents

The oral examination will be basically conducted via the Internet, and the applicant will be examined comprehensively based on the English Proficiency, a letter of recommendation, and a Statement of Intent.

(2) Date

June 23 (Mon) to June 27 (Fri), 2025

4. Examination Results Notification

July 8 (Tue), 2025, 10:00 A.M. (JST) the examination numbers of participants who pass the examination will be posted on the Gifu University website.

Successful applicants can generate their acceptance letters from the Online Application Website. We do not send acceptance letters by mail.

Note that participants who pass other than those in the Faculty of Applied Biological Sciences, Gifu University will send a notification by email on the day.

5. Entrance Fees and Tuition

For international students (“College Student” visa holder) who are admitted into the AGP, full exemption of the Entrance Fees and Tuition is offered by Gifu University for a period of 2 years.

6. Admission qualification screening

The applicants who are deemed to fall under ⑥ or ⑦ of “2. Application (1) Qualifications for Application (Requirements)” must undergo an individual admission qualification screening as follows.

(1) Application deadline for the admission qualification screening

May 9 (Fri), 2025

(2) Submission

Bring or send the following documents to the Student Affairs Section of the Graduate School of Natural Science and Technology, Gifu University.

(3) Necessary Documents

- i Application form for preliminary admission qualification screening
- ii Curriculum vitae for preliminary admission qualification screening
- iii Application Documents (Refer to “2. Application (3) Documents, etc.”)

7. Enrollment Procedures

The enrollment procedure will be conducted online through the web enrollment system. Details of the enrollment process will be published on the Gifu University website (<https://www.gifu-u.ac.jp>) around late August 2025. Please proceed promptly with the procedure following the instructions provided on the website.

Web Application Flow

The web application flow is as follows.

STEP 1

Preparation

Prepare a computer and printer connected to internet (smartphone and tablet are not recommended).
Prepare *required documents well in advance before application since it may take time to obtain them.

For details, please check the application guidelines for the graduate schools you wish to enter.

STEP 2

Access the Application Site

From the application site ▶ <https://e-apply.jp/ds/gifu-gs/>

STEP 3

MyPage Registration

Follow the instructions on the screen to enter the required information and register for MyPage.
If you have already registered MyPage, please proceed to STEP4.

① If you register MyPage for the first time, please login from My Page Registration.
